Dakota Valley Symphony

A non-profit, volunteer community arts organization, the Dakota Valley Symphony and Chorus have served Minnesota's Dakota County since 1986. The organization was created to provide an opportunity for skilled volunteer musicians to join together to perform and promote diverse symphonic and choral art music experiences of all periods and styles for residents of the south suburban Twin Cities area.

Concerts have been performed in parks, churches, schools, community centers and other public buildings throughout Apple Valley, Burnsville, Eagan, Hastings, Lakeville, Prior Lake and Saint Paul. The Symphony has performed for Minneapolis' Mill City Music Festival, and Heritage Festival, Stillwater's Lumberjack Days and for the Dakota County Historical Society.

The group also provides a forum for aspiring local composers to premiere their work, and conducts a Young Artist Competition to provide young musicians the opportunity to audition for and perform with the symphony.

The symphony is comprised of a 70-member symphony orchestra, a 60-member mixed chorus, and a 100-member Summer Pops orchestra and chorus, all under the direction of founder and music director Stephen J. Ramsey.

This is Ramsey's 32st season as founding music director and conductor of the Dakota Valley Symphony and Chorus. Ramsey is in his 24th season as music director/conductor of the Austin Symphony Orchestra of Austin, Minnesota, his 8th season with the University of Minnesota Health Sciences Orchestra, and 2nd season with the Willmar Area Symphonic Orchestra to his schedule.

A well-known conductor in the Twin Cities area, Ramsey has led performances at many area colleges, concert halls and churches. His orchestras have accompanied a remarkable list of local, national, and international soloists including: Richard Roberts, Concertmaster of the Montreal Symphony, 2001 Cleveland International Piano Competition winner, Roberto Plano, Principal Keyboardist of the MN Orchestra Vladimir Levitski, pianists, Susan Genaw John Jessen, Darin Tysdahl, Violinists; Dr. Ariana Kim, Dr. David Hays, James Riccardo, and New York's own Blair Lawhead; Principal Trumpet of the MN Orchestra, Manny Laureano, Principal Clarinet of the MN Orchestra, Burt Hara, Second Clarinet of the St. Paul Chamber Orchetra, Marlene Pauley, Cellist with the SPCO, Daryl Skobba, Tenor Rick Penning, Soprano Deb Carbaugh, German Dramatic Soprano Sarah Johansson, International Operatic Bass-Baritone Simon Estes and a whole host of singers as soloists and choristers.

Ramsey earned his master of music degree in orchestral conducting from the University of Missouri — Kansas City Conservatory of Music. He has studied with Glenn Block, Leonard Slatkin, Max Rudolph, James Sample, Samuel Jones, Harold Farberman, Edouard Forner, and Maurice Jones.
